MAP OF LLEIDA

MAYOR'S GREETING

The “Festa Major de Lleida” is one of the main events in the city’s cultural calendar. Along with the Puppet Fair, Moors and Christians Festival and Snailfest, it is the very essence of the May Festivities and is its point of origin. Throughout this month, the city offers a fascinating explosion of culture, art and tradition that has been put together with the support of its citizens and their associations and organisations.

The festivities in honour of Sant Anastasi, which are now about to begin, will allow you to enjoy all the creative capacity of Lleida to the full and to savour it in the civic space that we all share. It is also on this huge stage that, during these days, the mythical figures that give character and personality to the “Festa Major” will parade. The citizens of Lleida fully identify with and are excited by the likes of “Lo Marraco”, the “Gegants” (giants) and other elements of local traditional and folk culture.

The poster for this year’s “Festa Major de Lleida” comes with the signature of one of the city’s greatest artists: the painter and sculptor Antoni Abad. Similarly, the opening decree will be made by the journalist Lluís Caelles, who has enjoyed a long career with Televisió de Catalunya but who took his first steps as a professional in Lleida.

Antoni Abad and Lluís Caelles will add the most personal of touches to the 2017 edition of the “Festa Major” and round off what is a truly great programme which will be organised around traditional events. These will include: the presentation of plaques and medals awarded in recognition of the good work of people and institutions, Mass at the Cathedral, on the day dedicated to the local Patron Saint, a Procession and Offering to Sant Anastasi, the day of the “Castellers” (human towers), the dancing of “sardanes” (traditional folk dancing), a concert by the Municipal Band, the “Batalla de les Flors” (confetti battle), the Smile Park, fireworks, and many other activities, amongst which sports will have a significant presence. In fact, this year’s attractions will also include one of Europe’s most important sporting events: The Final Four of the European Roller Hockey Championship, which will be held at the city’s Barris Nord Pavilion.

One of the most distinctive features of the “Festa Major de Lleida” is the variety of music to be enjoyed. This is present in the main parties, in displays of traditional folk dancing and in the other dances and concerts that invade different parts of the city, including the Camps Elisis park and the Plaça del Dipòsit, Plaça Sant Joan and Plaça Ricard Viñes squares. In the evenings, the Camps Elisis will host groups from both Lleida and further afield. These will include: Renaldo & Clara, El Petit de Cal Eril, Tremendos, Muchachito, Buhos, M-Clan, amongst many others. As far as classical music is concerned, the Pre-Festival events will include one of the high points of the events programmed to celebrate Granados Year, in which La Llotja will stage a production of “Goyescas”, promoted by La Paeria (Lleida City Council). It is now possible to feel the excitement of the “Festa Major de Lleida” all around us. I therefore encourage you to come and experience it to the full and to enjoy it for what it is: a collective expression of appreciation for Lleida which, amongst all of us, we have managed to make bigger and more meaningful, year after year. I wish you a most enjoyable “Festa Major de Lleida”.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR FROM THE POSTER

Antoni Abad was born in Lleida in 1956. On finishing his studies in History of Art at the University of Barcelona in 1979, he decided to dedicate his time to the arts. His projects have been presented in Europe, the Americas and Australia, including at the biennials of Lleida, Venice and Seville, at the Mercosul of Porto Alegre and in Berlin. He has won the following prizes: Moreira Medal (Lleida 1991), City of Barcelona Prize (1998 and 2003), National Prize for the Visual Arts (Catalonia 2006), Golden Nica Award for Digital Communities (Austria, 2006) and Orilaxé/UNESCO (Rio de Janeiro, 2008). This year he will represent Catalonia at the 57th Biennial of Venice..

When we were young, for the “festa major” (main festival), we used to rush down Carrer Cavallers, where a sweet clarinet used to sound to announce that the Giants were dancing in all their majesty. We would then head along Carrer Major, as fast as we could, to catch up with them before they returned to their resting place at La Paeria (City Hall). That emotive melody, which so many generations have enjoyed, is what we are now celebrating with this poster. Download it onto your mobile phones from paeria.cat/festes/musica and let it play at this 2017 edition of the “Festa Major” (Main Festival) in honour of Saint Anastasi..

Accessibility and services for the disabled

The "Festa Major" is for everyone. These are days on which the participation of all citizens is key to enjoying the city. It is therefore important that the festive spaces are also accessible for people with reduced mobility. A special area will be made available for people in wheelchairs at the Battle of Flowers, which will take place at 6 pm on 11th May in the Rambla de Ferran (next to the Tribune for Civic Dignitaries).

The following "Festa Major" events will be covered by a sign language interpreter to help people with hearing problems:

- The Official Decree of the Festival, on Wednesday 10th May, at 8 pm in the "Saló de Plens" (Functions Room) of the Palau de la Paeria (City Hall), the Solemn Ceremony in honour of Saint Anastasi and the Floral Offering, which will take place on Thursday 11th May, at 11 am at the Cathedral of Lleida and at 12.45 pm in the Plaça Sant Joan.

Organisation

Those responsible for organising the 2017 edition of the "Festa Major" of Lleida would like to acknowledge and thank all of the contributions, sponsorships and collaborations made by companies, private individuals, commercial establishments, clubs and entities from the city which have made it possible to organise this event. We would also like to thank all of those who have disinterestedly taken part in the organisation and who have made a decisive contribution to the deliver the different activities programmed.

ADVICE AND SAFETY PRECAUTIONS FOR THE “CORREFOCS” (FIRE RUN)

FOR PARTICIPANTS

- Wear cotton clothes, which should preferably be old, with long sleeves and trousers.
- Wear a hat with ear pieces that cover the whole of your head and also protect the back of your neck with a cotton scarf.
- Protect your eyes.
- Use appropriate footwear (sports shoes, mountain boots, etc.).
- Make sure that you cover your ears to reduce the impact of the noise of the firework explosions.
- Do not ask the neighbours for water.
- Obey any instructions from the public order and health services.
- It is prohibited to carry your own fireworks; it is only possible to use those prepared by the organisers.
- Respect the fire figures, their bearers and the musicians.
- Respect the “diables” and do not block their path or cause them to fall.
- Always follow instructions given by the “diables”.

- Before setting out, make sure that you know the route of the “correfoc” and where the medical attention points are located.
- If you get burnt, go immediately to one of the medical attention points.
- In cases of danger, follow instructions given by the “diables”.

FOR NEIGHBOURS AND SHOP OWNERS

- Remove all vehicles from streets along the route.
- Lower metal doors or blinds on buildings that have them.
- Protect the glass in windows, doors and shop windows with thick cardboard.
- Roll up all external awnings outside rooms and commercial premises.
- Do not throw water at those participating in the «correfocs» or at the spectators.
- Disconnect any alarm systems.
- Remove any object that could obstruct the actors, organisers or participants in the «correfoc» from the street.
